allotted if necessary. Investigations are started on prospective applicants immediately after completion of the interview board.

File Review – Upon completion of the background investigations, the application file will be reviewed and the applicants will be ranked. This is completed as soon as the background investigations are completed.

Interview with the Chief of Police – Upon completion of the Background Investigation, an interview with the Chief of Police for a conditional offer of employment will be made as soon as scheduling permits.

Polygraph – Used to determine the truthfulness of information provided by the applicant.

Exams are approximately one hour in length, and are scheduled after a conditional offer has been made.

Psychological Fitness Examination – To determine the emotional fitness of candidates, a Psychological Fitness Examination is scheduled as soon as scheduling permits after a conditional offer has been made.

Medical Background Application – To determine the physical fitness of candidates, a medical evaluation is conducted as soon as scheduling permits after the conditional offer is made. This examination is conducted by a physician chosen by the City of Fayetteville Police Department and the City's expense. This is completed as scheduling permits.

Applications for the position will remain on file for six (6) months. If the position should become available during this 6-month period, the applicant may contact the Human Resources office and request his/her application be included for the new opening.
